A GUIDE TO THE PROGRAMS AND SERVICES AT MYSTIC VALLEY ELDER SERVICES

INFORMATION & OPTIONS COUNSELING

Our information specialists and options counselors can answer your questions and give you valuable information. They offer free advice and referrals from our extensive database of local, state, and national resources and can connect individuals and caregivers to the best available resources to meet their needs. Options counseling is a free interactive process to help individuals make informed choices about the settings and services that best meet their needs to help them remain independent in the community. These services are offered in-person (at the office or the individual's home), by telephone, video conferencing and via the website. Just think of these services as a one-stop resource.

CARE COORDINATION

Care managers and nurses develop a care plan in partnership with you/your family and then continue to work together over time to monitor the care plan, adjust it as needed, and secure the services agreed upon and modify them over time as needed. We also work with you if you transfer home from a hospital, skilled nursing or rehabilitation facility.

HOME CARE

The program provides access to a variety of consumer-centered services for older adults and adults living with disabilities who wish to remain in their own homes. Services include in-home assessment, and delivery of at-home and community-based services based on your care plan such as personal care assistance, nutrition, transportation, homemaking, laundry, grocery shopping, mental health and social support.

MVES.ORG
NUTRITION

A highly-trained caregiver specialist will work with you one-on-one to offer guidance and support with the extra time and attention you deserve. Resources designed for caregivers include in-home assessments, support groups, and caregiver education in areas such as memory loss and home safety. Relief from caregiving duties are available such as companions, adult day health and other supportive services. Access to services in Home Care are also available to caregivers.
